Electricity of the Mind: The Anomalist 14

By -

Anomalist Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 178 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. With this issue, The Anomalist seeks to provide sudden jolts of illumination to spark the imagination. Electricity of the Mind is instant CPR for the head. Theo Paijmans mines the rich seam of digital newspaper archives to look at anomalies in a whole new way. Ulrich Magin ventures into a previously neglected corner of Earth Mysteries, taking us on a tour of out-of-place volcanoes across Europe. Dwight Whalen explores a forgotten tale of bizarre visions that brought vivid omens of World War I to the skies of Pennsylvania in 1914. Cameron Blount examines the implications of archaeological relics of Peru's mysterious Moche culture and what they might tell us about the neighboring Nazca culture. Mike Jay discusses Samuel Taylor Coleridge's lasting and deep interest in the supernatural. Bryan Williams, Annalisa Ventola, and Mike Wilson provide a basic primer for exploring temperature and magnetic fields in cases of haunting. Patrick Gyger uses the Black Books of Fribourg to understand the mindset behind witch trials in the late 15th Century. Aeolus Kephias looks at the similarities between two of the 20th Century's most popular and charismatic literary shamans: Carlos Castaneda...
