THE ARTS OF INTIMACY: CHRISTIANS, JEWS AND MUSLIMS IN THE MAKING OF CASTILIAN CULTURE

Condition: New. This lavishly illustrated book chronicles the tumultuous history of Castile in the wake of the Christian capture of the Islamic city of Tulaytula, now Toledo, in the eleventh century and traces the development of Castilian culture as it was forged in the new intimacy of Christians with the Muslims and Jews they had overcome. Concentrating on the eleventh and twelfth centuries, it reveals the extent to which Castilian identity is deeply rooted in the experience of confrontation, interaction and at times union with Hebrew and Arabic cultures during the first centuries of its creation. The authors paint a portrait of the culture through its arts, architecture, poetry and prose. . . this book evokes the rich history and cultural permeability of medieval Spain like no other . . . fascinating and accessible. TIMES HIGHER EDUCATION SUPPLEMENT.
