Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Sheri McGathy (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Glenna Beckett loves her family dearly, but being the youngest of six can be overwhelming. Moving across country helped her learn who she was outside the family. She s built a successful business in the form of a quaint shop on Main Street of Calistoga, that sells a bit of everything vintage, the new age term for antique. What more does she need? Then he walked into her shop. International playboy, Lance Gordon. After a whirlwind courtship he asks her to marry him. Burying a niggles of doubt in the pit of her tummy, she says yes. He s even agreed to have the wedding in Brooklyn so her family can attend. But he never arrives. Glenna refused to believe she d been abandoned at the altar and asks her brother, Tyler, to contact an agent friend on the West Coast to search for Lance. Patrick McGinnis can t believe he s walking into a prissy shop in the high end of the Napa Valley searching for a missing groom. The bride, Glenna Beckett, is everything he feared, drop dead gorgeous, and a spoiled brat. Not that he d ever tell her brother that. He hates wild goose chases, and this mission is exactly that. Patrick s certain the playboy fiance is off wooing some other delectable creature. Unfortunately, once Patrick started to dig, he finds there s more to the tale and it will take all his skills as an agent to keep Glenna safe. Especially when the case takes a turn and threatens the safety of his son, Finn.
