Reviving The Soul Publications. Paperback. Condition: New. 114 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.3in. For many of us, the thirties have been filled with mundane tasks, working hard, and caring for family. There's nothing glamorous about it and we've lost some of the excitement of what's next! that we had in our twenties. Craig Cooper gets it and he has a good word for those of us in the trenches-God is with us and grace abounds. Thirty-Somethings reminds us that there is hope for the weary, tired, and even bored as Craig shines light on our great God and Savior. This book is indeed what we all need to hear. -TRILLIA NEWBELL Author of Fear and Faith (2015) and United (2014) We have so many voices in our culture telling us what we should value and who we should become. What this book does so well is let Jesus answer and define those pressing questions by viewing them through the lens of Scripture rather than the eyes of the world. Craig has been able to communicate a voice of Biblical truth that is louder and much more persuasive than anything in our culture. And it's a voice worth listening to. -JOHN HAMSTRA Lead Pastor, Mercy Hill Church, Munster, IN Thirty Somethings will challenge you to be still, to listen for God's voice, and to thrive in what are some of the most rewarding years of your life. -CHAD NIKAZY Blogger at Trifatherhood. com The thirties are a time where personal responsibility is at an all time high, margin is at a low, and novelty of the twenties is long past in the rear view mirror. It's been true for me. Craig Cooper understands the disillusionment of the thirties, but his wisdom doesn't stop there. Craig models in his life and...
