Excerpt from Patent and Trade-Marks Laws and Conventions: Being a Preliminary Report to the Commissioner of Patents Upon the Requirements of Senate Resolution of March 3, 1893 Sir: On March 7 last I received the following order: Please report to the Commissioner, in writing, your views on Senate resolution dated March 3, 1893, hereto inclosed, returning the resolution at the same time. N. L. Frothingham, Acting Commissioner. The resolution referred to is as follows: Resolved, That the Secretary of the Interior is directed to ascertain what legislation, if any, is necessary to enforce the provisions of existing treaties or conventions with foreign countries with respect to patents and trade-marks, or to secure to citizens of the United States the enjoyment of privileges in foreign countries corresponding to those enjoyed by the citizens or subjects of such countries in the United States, and to report his conclusions to the Senate at the next session of Congress. On the receipt of this resolution at the Interior Department it was referred to the Commissioner of Patents for his consideration and report, and since the above-named date has been on my desk for compliance with the Acting Commissioner s directions. I now have the honor to submit a partial and preliminary report. The resolution requires two things: (1) a report as to the legislation necessary to comply with existing treaties or conventions, and (2) a report as to the legislation necessary to secure full reciprocity to American citizens in foreign countries. The former calls for a close scrutiny of existing treaties to determine the obligations they impose, and of the existing United States statutes, so far as to ascertain how far they already fulfill these...
