Lessons from a Rock Star challenges the dryness of our greatest sorrows with a steady rain of hope. Within these pages lie simple but critical choices for facing the unfaceable. Let it soak your soul. --Mark Johnston, Lead Pastor of The Journey, Delaware Rocked to the core by the tragic death of her son, Ethan Isaac, Kristen Lopez invites us into her journey of hope-filled grief, recounting her blog, Lessons from a Rock Star. Determined to evade a despair which riddled her past with darkness, she drew strength from the lessons she learned through her little rock stars short yet impactful life. This blog, written over a three-month span directly following his passing, proved inspirational for many captivated hearts. Five years later, further reflecting on Gods redemptive power and blessing, she recounts her greatest lessons of all. Are you looking to find hope in hardship Even more magnificent, you can encounter Gods supernatural peace that goes beyond all understanding, a joy unspeakable, never-ending love and a hope secure in Jesus. Experience heaven on earth and allow God to rock you to your core in redemption and love. Includes discussion questions for individuals or groups. His daddys love went so deep that he literally pushed over a nurse to get to his child and beg him to come back to life. Youre a scrapper, buddy! Come back! Daddy says so! Almost immediately. . . beep, beep, beep. . . heartbeat. . . relief and joy. . . at least in that moment. . . Ethan Isaac passed on to his heavenly Daddy after being in a coma for four days. Now. This is the start..
