The Power of Love How beautiful your heart, For love gives hope, Another hours light, to nest thy love, from love, so you may melt into thy loves grace, in lovely gapes, so happens when the light ends, I too will listen well, In the nights wedding bell, but the hour does a weeping ride, unless thy vow becomes a recent hallow weed, when all but now, the two of us hath sown, then race to lightning bud my heart and soul, To wilt thy hallow sun a bed, how wed thy right leave in your love, To find the penny of the sun in your soul, So I will push my heart to the middle, to savor thy will in rose gardens to open in winter, And bring the sun out for my attention, Will the stars show me in the sea thy dagger, So I would then as sense become a paten, And then warmth the sun with earth, forming love by the star, from love by the star, Being with the greats, as a gift of love, To hand the heavens the pinch of light, for love is light in the dark, Light and dark. Her heart smiled tender in emotion, In love of her heart I cherish speechless, Good sweet bye to see love find its hue, I went to the cloud and drove in heaven, And then found someone nevermore. The Heart March 2007 The knower and known of life is love, Love is synonymous with the immortal, The Immortal is in and for itself, Greater than the sum of all our knowledge, And would our soul make up of one part, The beat of life...
