

Makers All Kinds of People Making Amazing Things In Garages, Basements, and Backyards.

By Bob Parks

Maker Media, Inc. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 184 pages. Dimensions: 8.7in. x 8.6in. x 0.9in. Make magazine, launched in February 2005 as the first magazine devoted to Tech DIY projects, hardware hacks, and DIY inspiration, has been hailed as a how-to guide for the opposable thumb set and Popular Mechanics for the modern age. Itching to build a cockroach-controlled robot, a portable satellite radio or your very own backyard monorail. Hankering to hack a game boy or your circadian rhythms. Rather read about people who fashion laptop bags from recycled wetsuits and build shopping cart go-karts. Make is required reading. Now, following on the heels of Makes wildly popular inaugural issues, O'Reilly offers Makers, a beautiful hardbound book celebrating creativity, resourcefulness and the DIY spirit. Author Bob Parks profiles 100 people and their homebrew projects—people who make ingenious things in their backyards, basements and garages with a lot of imagination and a little applied skill. Makers features technologies old and new used in service of the serious and the amusing, the practical and the outrageous. The makers profiled are driven by a combination of curiosity, passion and plain old stick-to-itiveness to create the unique and astonishing. Most are simply hobbyists...
