Not illustrated. 1916 Excerpt: .take out a contract and commission as assistant deputy, obtain free blanks and literature from the Head Office, write an application, collect the adoption fee, and after the new member is adopted and certified to by camp clerk, the $2 cash for each adoption will be paid, without limit. We have nearly 4,000 neighbors now holding these contracts. Some of them are making as high as $75 and $80 monthly from the $2 payments in their spare time. We expect to write 100,000 new members in 1916. Will you help and permit us to reward you hi cash? Write your state deputy for contract blanks and full details. A. R. TALBOT, Head Consul. is not observed. However the camp clerk may feel about the matter, it does not seem to be one where any discretion is permitted. The la--v very plainly says that the list of delinquents shall be read to the camp and since that is the law, the duty of the clerk is unmistakable. Many good results may follow consistent obedience to this provision, chief among which may be suggested the opportunity for personal persuasion on the part of the delinquent members friends, if the latter know the facts and are interested in keeping the forgetful ones in the camp. Much is said these days of the wasted effort that results from a high percentage of lapsations. New timber must be kept constantly coming in to replace membership discontinued by suspension and not until...
