Brand New Book  Print on Demand .MAJ Matthew Gomez served as assistant Support Operations Officer (SPO) in Baghdad, Iraq during 2003 and 2004, company commander in Baghdad, Iraq during 2005 and 2006, as operations and logistics officer in Kirkuk, Iraq during 2007 and 2008 in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom (OIF) and as Support Operations Officer in Mazar e Sharif, Afghanistan during 2010 in support of Operation Enduring Freedom (OEF). In this February 2011 interview, MAJ Gomez discusses the various duty positions he held and the challenges of each, the changes he noted in Iraq over the course of five years and three deployments, and the challenges of carrying out logistics operations in northern Afghanistan. MAJ Gomez concludes his interview with the observation, During the PDSS that we did for this last deployment into Afghanistan, and originally the one we were supposed to do for Iraq, there was always a position on that trip -- you only get so many seats and its usually the brigade commander, sergeant major, the XO, and all of his battalion commanders which is great; you have a lot...
