THE REAL TROPHIES OF A BAR B Q RESTAURANT (PAPERBACK)

Outskirts Press, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Norman Rockwell should have owned a BBQ Restaurant. This book is my trophy case. It is the people, the stories, the smiles, laughs, tears and things that just can t be made up, while just serving a few pork sandwiches. Best of all, I will be sharing many of the stories and trophies I was told and some I had the opportunity to experience with Sonny Tillman himself, Many of the Sonny stories are in his own words. In today s world, just about every darn restaurant in the world is selling Bar B Q. Most of it comes out of a bag or a plastic bucket and many who sell it don t even have wooden tables and chairs, let alone wood to cook with. Bar B Q competitions have sprouted up everywhere and at each of these events, somebody is going to win a trophy. Usually there are several of them given out. I know guys who have a room slap full of trophies and each of them would tell you that the real trophies are not the ones you can hold in your hand or put in a display case. The real trophies are the customers, team members and people you meet along the way. It is the stories of life in America. If Norman Rockwell had been a cook, he would have owned a BBQ restaurant.
