Black Robe: The Renegade Missionary

By Charles Rayner Kelly

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Jesuit missionary living among the American Indians in the 1840 s is declared a traitor and an apostate for committing the unpardonable offense of siding with the tribes. Fr. Stephen Morgan is caught between the tribespeople he has come to love and the expanding American nation. The story begins as Stephen lies gravely wounded, after a Dakota village is attacked by the US cavalry. He s found by White Fawn, who has grown to love and respect the blackrobe, and who tries to prevent his capture by the soldiers who are searching for him. Captain Gatewood hates his new assignment, which has taken him from his wife and family back east. Because he inadvertently says that he once knew the renegade priest, he is reassigned by the army to Indian country to hunt him down. We follow Stephen through his early years when he meets Andrew Jackson, who is running for the presidency. He hears the doctrine of manifest destiny, the notion that the American nation was divinely ordained to take the land from the tribes. He...
