Black Rose Writing, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Following the return of an empty carriage, Elizabeth Darmon begins a harrowing pursuit of her family s kidnappers. Alone, scared on the frontier of New Brunswick, she trails the kidnappers through deplorable conditions along the St. Lawrence River to Quebec City where she finds a woman posing as Elizabeth with another William. Near the scene of the abduction, her brother-in-law, Charles, recovers from a gunshot wound and is led to the Patriote Party s fanatical element of Reformers. He is swept into a rebellion, recruiting Americans at clandestine hunting lodges. Family members cross paths attempting to unravel conspiracy and murder before a tumultuous assault on the governor s palace. Historically accurate events provide non-stop suspense.
