Paperback. Condition: New. 160 pages. DEJA WHO CRIME MAY NOT PAY, BUT SORCERY'S A SURE BET This is a delightful story about an average man with above average ambition. In it, a laid off Southern California aircraft manufacturing worker, JEFF DELANEY, works two cashier type jobs in order to make ends meet. He has a rocky relationship with his girlfriend, Jennifer St. Pierre, trouble with the Police, and Gang Bangers to boot! Desperate to change his dismal situation, he seeks the help of a psychic witch, MADAME ROSA, who turns out to command rather extraordinary powers. With her help, he is put into trances which take him literally back to the time of Prohibition where his grandfather had a role in booze smuggling for a big gangster. Delaney plays the horses, knowing the winners in advance, in order to win a fortune which he can take back to the future. But one of his problems is that he must secretly stash the money so he can retrieve it back in the future, and must do it without getting himself killed by gangsters in the process. While most of us have to be satisfied with what we can get out of life, Mr. Jeff Delaney seeks radically alternative methods to achieve his goals. So, sit back, relax, and enjoy the ride! TERROR BENEATH US HAVE WE GUARDED AGAINST ATTACKS ON A NATIONAL LEVEL SO WELL THAT ONE LED BY AN INDIVIDUAL CAN GO UNDETECTED This story is comprised of fast paced action which does not take itself too seriously, but at the same time presents some credible danger. It concerns a Port Authority Police Officer, MIKE KNASICK, who stumbles onto information leading him to believe that the U. S. is soon to be attacked by three suicide nuclear submarines manned by Terrorists, led by AHMED SARWAR,...
