T HAVE heard tell of a man who did not know a great A from a bull s foot, and I know a good many who certainly could not tell what great A or little A either may mean; but some of these people are not the most ignorant in the world for all that. For instance, they know a cow s head from its tail, and one of the election gentlemen said lately that the candidate from London did not know that. They know that turnips don t grow on trees, and they can tell a mangold-wurtzel from a beet root, and a rabbit from a hare, and there are fine folk who play on the pianos who hardly know as much as that. If they cannot read they can plough, and mow, and reap, and sow, and...
