

The Love of the Game: The Agonies and Ecstasies of Parenting and Sport (Paperback)

By Mark Chapman

Orion Publishing Co, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. BBC sports presenter Mark Chapman is no longer in his physical prime. There is an argument to suggest he has never been in his physical prime. Now in his forties, he is facing a world of knee replacements and ever-expanding waistlines, whilst his children are thriving. There is huge pride that they are doing so well, mixed with a fair amount of jealousy that actually they are better at a wide range of sport than he ever was. He is passionate about sport and it has played a huge part in his life. His parents encouraged him from a very early age and he wants to pass the baton on to his son and daughters. Although there is every chance he might drop it and have a massive strop instead. He is also very aware of the huge changes in sport today compared to when he was growing up; and he is determined that his own attitude to his son and daughters sport - be it football, netball, cricket or gymnastics - will be exactly the same. And he wants to shine a light on grass...
