Would you accept a mysterious fairy creature s invitation to see her fantastical yet troubled world even if it meant giving up everything you ever cared for? For fans of Peter Pan and Harry Potter comes a story like no other. Liam, a young teenage boy who recently lost his father, is befriended by G, a different kind of fairy creature from what he has read about in fairy tales, after breaks the strict rules of her magical world and intervenes when Liam is beaten up by a gang of school bullies, outside her secret, magical cave on top of Edinburgh s Calton Hill. Immediately G and Liam form a deep bond of friendship that takes them on a whirlwind adventure inside her fantastical, yet dark and troubled world - from the great cliffs of doom and the flesh eating forest, to the great lake and all the weird and wonderful creatures that dwell there, from fire wolves and rainbow dragons to the more sinister lurking weasel bats. Things take a darker turn when Liam, looking to impress the new girl...
