

Taming the Steel (Paperback)

By Lynn Jackson

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The year is 2213. The world's ecosystem has collapsed due to human overpopulation and the lack of effort by mankind to save Mother Earth. Mankind has killed off or destroyed almost everything God created. Almost as if in punishment for man's crimes against nature, a massive solar storm rained over the planet, reverting civilization back to the old west where people live and die by the gun and robotic steel horses run wild and free. Rising from the destruction, a small town in what was once California called Pleasant Hill is in dire need of rescue before everything is gone. With electricity generated from the sun and wind, gold delivered by train, salvageable items dug from the dried earth or panned out of the running streams; Pleasant Hill has been taken over by a gang of cutthroats led by a father and his two sons called the Banners; who want the town's riches for their own. With no respect for the town's law, the Banners kill, steal and destroy anything that stands in their way. Seeking revenge against the...
