Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Annual Report, 1916 The past year has seen the Home Defense League, which was established in 1915, welded into a permanent organization with a membership close to drilled by police and army Officers, and firmly established as a strong auxiliary to the Force. This League, as founded, is a body of citizens public-spirited enough to manifest actively a real interest in the Police Force of the city; who have a healthy desire to know more about the work of the men who patrol the city night and day who wish to receive some of the same training that makes these blue-coated guardians such fine physical specimens; who wish to show through such an organization that citizens can help policemen in a practical manner who wish to share responsibilities in an emergency, and at all times be a big moral force behind the police and a connecting link between the police and the great mass of citizens.
