Assignment oi Future Wages and Discharge in Bankruptcy. The supreme court of Illinois says (Mallin vs. Venham, 70 Northeastern Reporter, 564) that the authorities are ample and conclusive to the effect that an assignment of wages to be earned in the future, under an existing employment, is valid. This precise question has frequently been passed upon by the courts of the different states and of England, and, so far as this court is advised, the courts of last resort have, without exception, upheld such contracts, where they have been for 21 valuable consideration and untainted with...
