As outlandish as some of this is, it is true. I was told by Mayo Clinic that I had Turner Syndrome and could never have children. I finished high school at an Episcopal Girl s School in another state than where my parents lived. i then went to a girl s college in Saint Louis. I didn t think any man would want me. I tried to join the military but was turned down because of my ailment. I then tried to become a nun and was turned down for the same reason. I decided I was going to live out my life alone as an old maid. No, I didn t like other girls, I just had not and did not expect to ever find a husband. My parents did not approve of any boy they ever met. Then the first miracle happened when I was 26. We met during a thunderstorm. He was a young Air Force Captain. The first words out of his mouth were, We both like thunderstorms, let s get married. I did not take him seriously, but he kept hanging around and I was attracted to him. My parents liked him and pushed me to go after him. I agreed to marry him when it looked like the military might separate us. I could not stand to lose him after our year of dating. We had a series of miracles throughout our life....
