

How I Broke My Heart: A Teenager s Playbook (Paperback)

By Pushkal Sinha

BecomeShakespeare.com, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It is the last year of the school for Rishi who acts like a boy who is not made for relationships. And his friends, Akash and Aditya who are interesting in their own ways. Rishi loves them, and they love him back! After their encounter with some girls at their school and tuition classes, their lives start to get tangled. They try to resist changes until destiny decides otherwise. The story vividly depicts the life of teenagers in the modern world, in a light-hearted manner, where they have to face fierce competition amidst confusion as they struggle their way out of their studies and everyday life while brooding and whining over their love interests. Rishi is left dumbstruck on meeting his counterpart love interest. On every meeting with the girl that made him go head over heels, Rishi finds that his feelings for her are genuine and strong, and are getting even stronger. But somewhere forced by his own mindset he feels that he might have to let go of her one day. As the story unfolds along with a set of rules for...
