It was a day like any other but no day is the same when fate takes charge of our lives. A woman travels through time in the most unexpected way; forced to face an unknown past, unveiling dark and forgotten secrets. She survives to tell the story. What would you do if you knew your life is not transitory? How different would your life be? Would you make other choices, take some more risks? Would you be willing to change? Would you follow the call?.
