It is said that the best and noblest lives are those which are set toward high ideals. Truly no higher ideal regarding marriage can be cherished by young people than to look upon it as a divine institution. In the minds of the young such a standard is a protection to them in courtship. It will lead them to seek divine guidance in the selecting of their companions, upon the wise choice of whom their life s happiness here and hereafter is largely dependent. Our home joys, says Pestalozzi, are the most de lightful earth affords, and the joy of parents in their children is the most holy joy of humanity. It makes their hearts pure and good it lifts them up to their Father in Heaven. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
