By BIDDU

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . As a child, Biddu dreamt of going west and making it big as a composer. At the age of sixteen, he formed a band and started playing in a cafe in Bangalore, his home town, At eighteen, he was part of a popular act at Trinca s, a nightclub in Calcutta devoted to food, wine and music, At nineteen, he had college students in Bombay dancing to his music. In his early twenties, he left the country and ended up hitchhiking across the Middle East before arriving in London with only the clothes on his back and his trusty guitar. What followed were years of hardship and struggle but also great music and gathering fame. From the nine million selling Kung Fu Fighting to the iconic youth anthem of Made in India and the numerous hits in between. Biddu s music made him a household name in India and elsewhere. In this first public account of all that came his way: the people, the events, the music tours and companies Biddu writes with a gripping sense of humor about his remarkable journey...

Reviews

I just started looking over this ebook. It is actually rally fascinating through reading period of time. You wont really feel monotony at anytime of your time (that's what catalogues are for about when you request me).
