

Let It Go: An Urban Greek Tragedy (Paperback)

By Sean M Cleveland

Outskirts Press, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Sometimes you have to just Let It Go!!! The story of Moe, Keyla, Stephanie, Slide and Cherry is a clear example of an Urban Greek Tragedy in relation to not understanding the dynamics of Love. The idea that some loves shouldn't last and need to be let go of. Even when they are true and deserving loves, sometimes because of circumstance or just because of the timing they should not be held on to. Some loves are one sided and are doomed from the start, because only one person feels it. It's a lopsided love that can cause serious problems, so it should be let go of. And then there is the fact that all loves to some degree are possessive leading to those experiences that cross the line into the obsessive, the controlling and the out of control. Turning the idea of Love into an abusive situation that should be let go of. And sadly there are a great many loves that are tainted by their own misinterpretation. Meaning that some loves have no respect in them, some loves...
