Therefore we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord. We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord. For to me, to live is Christ and die is gain. Neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain. And there shall be no night there, and they need no candle, neither light Of the sun for the Lord God giveth them light, and they shall reign forever and ever. Behold I show you a mystery - we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed: in a moment, in the twinkling Of an eye, at the last trump. For this corruptible must put on incorruption and this mortal must put on immortality. SO when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: death is swallowed up in victory. O death where is thy sting? O grave,...
