The title ABBA AND POLIO is a fictional long story about a polio victim whose overprotective family had strong hatred for polio vaccine. Abba, the victim was in his heyday when it came to the knowledge of his family that he had been terribly affected by the most dangerous form of polio paralytic polio, to the extent both his leg and hand got malformed mysteriously .This was coming following a long term thorough medical check-up by specialists in the city hospital which brought it to the conclusion that speedy actions had to be put in place so as to ensure that no more case of the disease was found in the community having confirmed that, Abba, was now a sole victim all over the region. Abba and his family became the center of attention the day the community was removed from the list of polio free communities. Mama, Abba s, mother found herself in the most testing period of life when they were both paraded on the television and interviewed by an international radio station which made her willing to go everywhere in quest for medicine for her dear son come rain come shine. Gradually, Abba became desperate and bored due to the unfair discrimination he faced from their teachers at school. One day, he asked his mother to kill him as a lasting solution to the difficulty she had been facing in her attempt to find medicine for him which he often called a DREAM WORLD telling her that he was no more useful to her so she should either take him somewhere else and leave him stranded or allow him to kill himself. The IDEA...
