Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Paul was the writer of Galatians and Ephesians. Each book discusses God s Grace. The book of Galatians reveals God s Grace on Individuals, while the book of Ephesians explains God s Grace on His Church. Without the Grace of God, we are without hope; however, God s Grace provides us with Hope and Assurance. When God makes a promise, we are assured that God will make good on His promise. God has promised that His Grace is extended to everyone who will believe Him, accept His Son, and calls on Him for forgiveness. Without God s Grace, I would not know Him or have the ability to know Him. With God s Grace, I have received Jesus as my Savior and know without a doubt that I belong to the Lord. God s grace extends beyond the individual and is presented to His Church. The Church was established by the Lord and has the purpose of fulfilling the will of God. Therefore, God s Grace has been showered upon His Church, when His Church allows Him to work through the Church. I believe you will enjoy studying these two books and will receive insight into the Lord s Grace.
