

Crescent of Crisis: U.S.-European Strategy for the Greater Middle East

By Ivo H. Daalder, Nicole Gnesotto, Philip H. Gordon

Brookings Institution. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Crescent of Crisis: U.S.-European Strategy for the Greater Middle East, Ivo H. Daalder, Nicole Gnesotto, Philip H. Gordon, The greater Middle East region is beset by a crescent of crises, stretching from Pakistan through Afghanistan, Iran, and Iraq to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Together, these five crises pose the most pressing security challenges faced by the United States and its European allies --ranging from terrorism and weapons proliferation to the rise of fundamentalism and the lack of democracy. Until now, Europe and the United States have approached these issues (indeed, the Middle East as a whole) in differing ways, with little effective coordination of policy. In fact, how best to deal with the greater Middle East has emerged as one of the most contentious issues in U.S.-European relations. The need for a common approach to the region is more evident than ever. This book brings together some of Europe and America's leading scholars and practitioners in an effort to develop a common approach to resolving the five major crises in the region. European and American authors provide succinct and fact-filled overviews of the different crises, describe U.S. and European perspectives on the way...
