Dymaxicon. Paperback. Condition: New. 344 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.0in. x 0.9in. A relentless tour of DC's most crime-ridden streets, with many beautifully written surprises, and darker than the deepest noir. Madison Smartt Bell David Swinsons Ezra Simeon has the dry wit of Chandlers Marlowe and the stylish, hard-won bitterness of Connellys Harry Bosch. Hillary Louise Johnson While its difficult to find a retired cop who hasnt written a book, its rare to find one as beautifully written as A Detailed Man. Tim Grobaty, the Press Telegram of Long Beach From corner boys to call girls, Swinson sketches his characters with the authority of a seasoned detective who knows every alley in town. Dave Jamieson, award winning journalist and author of, Mint Condition (Atlantic Monthly Press, 2010) Half of DC Police Detective Ezra Simeons face is immobilized from a persistent case of Bells Palsy--he must drink through a straw and eat carefully to avoid chewing through his own cheek. He has been detailed from robbery to the cold case department while he heals. How odd to dream with one eye open, like having one foot in reality, Sim muses in the dark, bluesy vein that is typical of his Chandler-esque narration. Thats what makes dreaming dangerous and why I moved my gun farther from the bed. Detective Simeons half-frozen world begins to heat up when a friend from his Academy days drops dead of a heart attack, and Sim is tapped to replace him, detailed now to homicide, where he inherits the high-profile case of a murdered escort he alone thinks may be the victim of a serial killer. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
