By J Andrew Killion

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This book, They Don t Eat Neckbones In Chicago explores all the elements of love, hate, jealousy, betrayal and eroticism. The story centers around the life of a young man that lives in a public housing project who suddenly finds himself embroiled in a world of lust and erotic temptations. Initially, his only desire was to halt the trend of young men and women wasting their lives away. So he set out to create a program that would help those young men and women, living in the complex, change their mindsets and hopefully develop into competent and self-supportive adults. But along the way this unassuming young man would encounter challenges and temptations he had never anticipated in his wildest dreams. On one side of what eventually evolved into a love triangle was his extremely vain, conceited, and self-centered live-in girlfriend. Although she was also extremely attractive, she was anything but a joy to live with. One day he returns home and finds his girlfriend has invited her unassuming and extremely shy cousin, fresh in from the cotton fields of...
