It answered No 1 Living with Wm. Morrison seven years, and traveling constantly about on business for him, in distances varying from 500 to 1000 miles, I inquired at every place where I stopped, from the spirit, whether this was the place destined for me. It always answered N Mr. Morrison, after keeping us for seven years, and not being able to keep us longea, on account of it being a free State, sent us to Missouri, to his lead mines. His sons all having left him, except Wm. M., Jr., and his father being unable to attend to all the business, wherefore Wm. M., Jr., was authorized to dispose of us, and sold us to James mccoormaok, of J efferson County, Mo, on Platin Creek. Being delivered to him at the mines, we followed him toebis plantation. Crossing the creek, and seeing the farm at a distance, I inquired...
