Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Santa Dies Once Again is the first book in the series, Strongbow: A Warriors Journey Through Hell And Back. The Sixties. A decade that changed the nation. Sex, booze, music, and mind-altering drugs. But for 14-year old Mitch, life isnt all about peace and love. Torn between two worlds, his internal battle rages. The traditions of his Sioux background and the family pressure to keep his soul pure battle against the temptations of drugs, girls, and parties. As an army brat, the move from base to base makes life one big brawl. And with an Aboriginal father and German mother, being called a "half-breed" at school leads to one blackout rage after another. But defending himself is Mitchs guilty pleasure. Knockouts, suspensions, and more time to be bad. The Vietnam War and its political unrest only add to Mitchs teenage angst. With a father fighting overseas, a single mother struggling to survive, an admired older brother deep into all the local bikers have to offer, and an unthinkable family secret that could tear their lives apart, Mitch quickly feels his worlds collide. Hunt Camp Scene, 1962 I had this nightmarish dream that I was hunting alongside not only my dad, but Rhonda Ryans deceased dad, Steve. All three of us were wearing military combats and carrying M-1 rifles. We werent in a forest but in an old abandoned town, like a ghost town in the old west. We heard all these blood curdling screams. We couldnt figure out where they were coming from, or who was making the shrill sounds. We all walked towards the center of the town. A thin layer of fog had...
