A. of Saratoga, giving a full account of this important meeting, and of the timely speeches made. All the brethren engaged or interested in a similar work in their own localities would do well to secure and examine this report. Ame rican Christian citizens everywhere need to be stimulated to similar activity in opjwsing the civil, social, and political evils tliat are coming in upon and over us like a flood. In their re/iffioui work, our members in Saratoga have a gtxid record. A daily morning prayer meeting, under their auspices, is well sustained during tho summer season. The attendance is often very large. We would urge the brethren to...
