FastBook Publishing, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Aufl.. Language: French . Brand New Book. Né en octobre 1962, Arnaud Montebourg est un homme politique français. Membre du Parti socialiste (PS) en France, il est député à l'Assemblée nationale, élu d'une circonscription de Saône-et-Loire et également président du conseil général de la région, entre autres. Avocat de profession, sa carrière professionnelle commence en 1990 comme avocat à la Cour d'appel de Paris. Arnaud Montebourg gravit successivement les échelons et devient en 1993, le Premier secrétaire de la Conférence du stage des avocats de Paris. Au niveau politique, il se fait surtout remarquer pour ses idées dites décapantes qui font, dans la plupart des cas, face au scepticisme de la direction du PS. Et des idées il en a eu, et il y tient. Parmi elles, la mise en place d'une VI<sup>e</sup> République, la révision du statut pénal du chef de l'Etat, une lutte plus présente contre les paradis fiscaux, la démondialisation ou encore le retour à des formes de protectionnisme.
