Excerpt: .fairly to the principal Baptist preachers the exact position which he occupied. Being all assembled in a room at Major Davis , where he stayed, he introduced himself fully to their acquaintance in the following manner, as related by himself: Brethren, I fear that if you knew me better you would esteem and love me less. For let me tell you that I have almost as much against you Baptists as I have against the Presbyterians. They err in one thing and you in another; and probably you are each nearly equidistant from original apostolic Christianity. . I paused; and such a silence as ensued, accompanied by a piercing look from all sides of the room, I seldom before witnessed. Elder Vardeman at length broke silence by saying: Well, sir, we want to know our errors or your heterodoxy. Do let us hear it. Keep nothing back. I replied, I know not where to begin; nor am I in health and vigor, after the toils of the day, to undertake so heavy a task. But, said I, I am commencing a publication called the Christian Baptist, to be devoted to all such matters, a few copies of which are in my portmanteau, and, with your permission, I will read you a few specimens of my heterodoxy. They all said, Let us hear--let us hear the worst error you have against us. I went up stairs and unwrapped the first three numbers of the Christian Baptist..
