THE AZIZ BEY INCIDENT (PAPERBACK)

Istros Books, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The writing of Ayfer Tunc is in essence urban, and yet she manages to imbue her characters with a fragile humanity and an old-fashioned sense of the melancholy of modern life. In the title story, we meet Aziz Bey - at once the most genuine and the saddest of all her heroes. Here we see the life of an ordinary Turkish man, a master tambour player of local fame, whose life stretches from Istanbul to Beirut because of his obsessive love for Maryam. We witness the fading of this love with the passage of time and changing of circumstances, bringing us closer to this man than to many other modern protagonists. With the soft touch of an accomplished writer, the life of this singular musician is laid bare in all its sweetness and mediocrity, until we are almost sure that we might catch a glimpse of him next time we visit the vibrant, all-night bars of Istanbul. The Snow Traveller features another solitary man whose deadly loneliness ate into his soul like a malignant tumour. Esber, a train signal man, lives in a remote region of Turkey that, for most of the year, is carpeted in white. When a flash of colour appears he is exhilarated to discover a young woman lying in the snow and nurses her back to health. Fidan had jumped off the train, fleeing unnamed assailants. However, she is quickly unsettled by Esber's unhealthy obsession. In A Cold Winter Samavi Bey is also fixated by the memory of a woman. After losing his wife in a fire, Samavi never gets warm again. He wanders from room to room in his house and visits coffee houses in an attempt to...
