Outskirts Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 108 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.4in. x 0.3in. What Jael Did is story from the dark ages that is brought to light in way that is modern and fascinating. Jael is sassy, beautiful, and captivating, and READY TO DO BATTLE FOR THE LORD! Jael circled the sleeping figure. She reversed her direction and circled around again. Jael trembled with fear. She could not stop shaking. Her heart pounded furiously and felt as if it was beating out of her chest. This is a bad dream, Jael thought. This cannot be real. Soon she would wake up on her animal print divan in the loving arms of her husband, Heber. No, that would not be possible because Heber had not come home. He had abandoned her. It was so unfair, Jael thought. Wasnt she entitled to have her fairly tale like every other little girl Why had her marriage turned out so disastrous Why couldnt she have her happily ever after Jael wept softly. Through her tears, she saw the sleeping figure stirring underneath the covers. It turned over and muddled up the covers. Jael snapped in a fit of anger. In her mind she no longer realized there was sleeping man under the covers. She saw only black goats hair tent covering. The tent was falling down again, and it was her responsibility to fix it. All of the housework was her responsibility. What did Heber ever do besides sit around and grumble Besides, she had just fixed the tent earlier after the sudden storm burst. Jael wasnt weeping anymore. She was angry. She was angry that the tent was constantly falling apart, and angry that her husband Heber was never there to help fix it. Kneeling down she straighten up the covers that had been...
