

Grandma Takes a Lover (Paperback)

By Sue Chamblin Frederick

Word Jewels Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A Rita Hayworth look-alike, Adela Queen Harper is small town Ivy Log, Georgia s most talked about grandmother. The town folk spend their time gossiping about the stunning beauty s every move. Why would such a beautiful woman live her life without a handsome man at her side? The prim ladies of The Church suspect she has a hidden lover in the upstairs bedroom of her house on Mulberry Street. More intriguing still, she disappears for at least four weeks in the fall of each year , supposedly enjoying time alone at her lake cottage. Gossip becomes even more rampant when, after forty years, handsome recluse Frank Carberry returns to the Carberry mansion on Nottely Lake. Only a short distance away from the grand house, across a white picket fence, sits Adela s cottage, where the lovely widow tends her roses and ignores her surly neighbor. Adela and Frank s pasts surge to the surface when secrets are revealed about a love affair between their grandparents fifty years ago and the discovery that Adela s small cottage was their love nest....
