This is a tribute to our best friend, so happy and colorful. The domestic dog (Canis lupus familiaris) is a subspecies of the gray wolf (Canis lupus), a member of the Canidae family of the mammalian order Carnivora. The term domestic dog is generally used for both domesticated and feral varieties. The dog was the first domesticated animal and has been the most widely kept working, hunting, and pet animal in human history. The word dog can also refer to the male of a canine species, as opposed to the word bitch which refers to the female of the species. Recent studies of well-preserved remains of a dog-like canid from the Razboinichya Cave in the Altai Mountains of southern Siberia concluded that a particular instance of early wolf domestication approximately 33,000 years ago did not result in modern dog lineages, possibly because of climate disruption during the Last Glacial Maximum. The authors postulate that at least several such incipient events have occurred. A study of fossil dogs and wolves in Belgium, Ukraine, and Russia tentatively dates domestication...

Reviews

Certainly, this is the finest job by any publisher. I was able to comprehend almost everything out of this published ebook. You won't truly feel monotony at any moment of the time (that's what catalogues are for concerning should you question me).
