

Managing Human Development

By Manu N Kulkarni

2007. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 376 This book captures the thoughts of the Author who worked for more than four decades at the grassroots in India and other countries, observing and watching how Human Development Programmes touch the lives of those who receive the services like primary health care, water and sanitation, school education and reflecting on the managerial dimensions of these programmes. Human Development Programmes are more difficult to manage at the cutting edge. They are easy to design at the level of the State and the Funding Agencies but when they reach the people who receive them for their well being they either get distorted or reach them at the wrong time and place. The Managers of the Human Development Programmes can be great innovators if they want and can legitimately participate in the joys and sorrows of those who receive them. The book captures the ideas of the policy makers, technologist, and those who manage them for the benefit of the people like mothers, children, farmers, the marginalized groups. About The Author:- Dr. Manu N. Kulkarni studied in Karnataka University, Dharwar, Bombay University, Mumbai and Specialised in Public Health in Johns Hopkins Schools of Public Health, Baltimore...

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE
[3.49 MB]

Reviews

It is a single of my favorite publication. I have read and so I am sure that I will likely to study again once again down the road. I am delighted to let you know that this is basically the greatest publication we have read inside my own life and might be the best pdf for possibly.

-- Maria Morar

It is one of the best publications. It is definitely simplistic but excitement in the 50% in the ebook. I am very happy to let you know that this is basically the greatest publication I have got through within my own existence and could be the greatest pdf for ever.

-- Dr. Anya McKenzie