With a spade on his shoulder, and a glass bottle of liquor in his hand, he used to walk from his house (afterwards an Inn, but now occupied by Mr. Brookes a Surgeon, and others,) to his fields and back again several times a day. In addition to his glass bottle and spade, may be mentioned his watering pot, which he frequently carried, and with his own hands watered the trees he had newly set. Mr. Kyrle was a daily attendant at church. At the chiming of the bells, all business ceased with him, --he washed his hands, and retired. Every body has heard of Pope s Euloguiin on the Man of Ross. The verses are now for the first time properly illustrated; and the public are indebted to Mr. Jenkins, long resident in the town, for the following valuable and interesting...
