CROSSWAY BOOKS, United States, 2012. Pamphlet. Book Condition: New. 137 x 91 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Do you recall the most famous reindeer of all? That s right--Rudolph. There was something special about him. Do you remember what it was? You got it--his shiny, red nose. Some liked him, but most did not, because he wasn t like the other reindeer. They knew Rudolph was special, but they just laughed and called him names. They didn t even let him play in any reindeer games. Then one Christmas Eve, Santa had a big problem. It was too foggy and dark for Santa to deliver his presents. That s when Santa asked Rudolph to use his bright and shiny nose to guide his sleigh that night. Remember how the story ends? Because of Rudolph, all the children got Santa s gifts just in time. The other reindeer loved him, shouting, Rudolph, you ll go down in history. A Special Child There is another favorite Christmas story about a real child who was different from all the others. People knew He was special. Even though He was born in a barn where the animals rested, kings traveled from far away to see the child and give Him expensive gifts. As soon as they saw Him, the kings bowed down and worshiped Him. That child was Jesus. As He grew older and became a man, some people liked Him, but others made fun of Him and some even tried to hurt Him. You see, the world was a scary and dark place. People were doing bad things called sin. So God sent His Son, Jesus, the light of the world, to lead people out of the darkness of sin to God. Jesus said, I am the light of the world...
