Damiani, 2008. Condition: new. Photographs by Fabio Paleari. English text. Bologna, 2008; paperback, pp. 272, b/w and col. ill., cm 24x27,5. Between 2004 and 2006 photographer Fabio Paleari followed Pete Doherty and the Babyshambles on gigs, backstage, at parties, creating a singular diary of images, intentionally disordered and formless. I won't give up also portrays the bohemian community frequented by the band in the London of Redchurch Street and Brick Lane: a "dirty little magical neighbourhood". The book is also printed in a limited edition with a photo numbered and signed by Fabio Paleari.
