And so it should. In every room one thing such as fireplace, window-seat or a bit of pottery should be taken as the key-note, the other fixtures or furnishings being selected to complement in style and color this central feature. While the frieze decoration of the library is used in just such a way producing a most elaborate appearance, it is possible for any one to duplicate the effect. This library was finished just as planned by our Decorative Department. The owner merely requested that an elaborate treatment be submitted. The decorator was not hampered. The special stencil frieze is a work of art and shows to what a high standard the stencil can be carried. There are those who think the stencil is a cheap method of producing decorations. While the actual cost of...
