

What Color Is Blue? (Paperback)

By N Keith Boyd

Page Publishing, Inc., 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Even as a preteen, Young William was destined to be a notable person. His independence was guiding him to a promising career and a long adventurous life. But that road led in front of an artillery cannon that bit his ambitions and reshaped his worth. At the age of seventeen while serving in the cavalry in 1936, he became blinded for life in a horrific accident that would have meant failure for any other persona. After over two years in the hospital, William Boyd began an episode that would make him an icon among his peers. Along the way, he gathered strength and punishment for himself. After working in a broom factory with no purpose, he stumbled upon an opportunity to become more worthy of his life. After many attempts, he was finally accepted into Texas Chiropractic College as one of their first blind student. Upon graduating, he now had to make the world accept him as a healer. But first, he had to accept himself. He found that love was just as hard as finding his sight. His chiropractic practice grew,...
