Alistair Ellis is the proud gardener for beautiful fifteenth-century Whitecott Manor, in England's West Country. His life changes forever following a gas explosion at the manor, in which his boss--and love of his life--dies. However, his boss hasn't exactly gone for good and Alistair still finds himself involved in conversations with the deceased. Circumstances improve when he meets Noah, the handsome dog groomer for the manor's new owners. Although there are some issues: Noah is already engaged and Alistair suffers from cynophobia--an acute fear of dogs!.
