

Creatures of Thirsty (Paperback)

By Payal Yagnik

Xexoxial Editions, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . First collection of poems by Payal Yagnik. Payal Yagnik's Creatures of Thirsty re-creates and permeates the spaces between our waking senses, our lived experiences, and the senses and experiences of the unconscious. In those mutable/mutating spaces percolates love and beauty and wonder and an aching, a thirst, that is hard to fathom. Creatures, human and animal and plant, untamed, unbound in time, rise up, palpable, interact, change, then sink back down, sift away as eyes-and tongues-open again. There are moments of intense revelation- I was not born to create, I was created to be born. My self is an anti-spiral, it is a constancy of an inert vision (17). There are moments of defiance: I am a retired precursor to all things transitory (71). There are moments of transcendence: It's beautiful, the way his poetry skips through the notes falling off this skin, like weightless snow crystals (15). This is a collection of poems you must read with all your senses, but it is also a collection you might read with your eyes closed. Your other senses, then, waking...

Great electronic book and useful one. It can be written in straightforward terms rather than difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
