By Nik Morton

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Where there is light, there is shadow. This cross-genre thriller is set in present-day Malta and has echoes from pre-history and also the eighteenth century Knights of Malta. Malta may be an island of sun and sand, but there s a dark side to it too. It all started when some fishermen pulled a corpse out of the sea. Or maybe it was five years ago, in the cave of Ghar Dalam? Spellman, an American black magician, has designs on a handpicked bunch of Maltese politicians, bending their will to his master s. A few sacrifices, that s all it takes. And he s helped by Zondadari, a rather nasty vampire. Maltese-American investigative journalist Maria Caruana s in denial. She can t believe Count Zondadari is a vampire. She won t admit it. Such creatures don t exist, surely? She won t admit she s in love with him, either. Detective Sergeant Attard doesn t like caves or anything remotely supernatural. Now he teams up with Maria to unravel the mysterious disappearance of young pregnant women. They re also helped...
